KUALA LUMPUR, Oct 20 (Bernama) - Malaysia will hold a meeting with Saudi Arabia soon to get information about the allied forces assault on the Daesh stronghold in Mosul, Iraq.

Defence Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein said he would meet with his counterpart and Deputy Crown Prince, Mohammed Bin Salman Al-Saud, to enable the government to take proactive measures to ensure national and ASEAN security.

"Do not think what happened there (Mosul) has nothing to do with us in ASEAN region. Information sharing is important to plan for Daesh militants fleeing Mosul," he told reporters in the parliament lobby, here today.....
