SINGAPORE, Aug 21 (Bernama) -- Malaysia and Indonesia are Singapore's two most important partners, says Singapore Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong.

"We work hard to build our ties, but these are sensitive, complex relationships," he said when delivering his English speech at the National Day Rally 2016 at ITE College Central.

"There will be differences from time to time, because of their deep-seated attitudes towards us, but today, on the whole, relations with both countries are good," he said.....
