SINGAPORE, Aug 21 (Bernama) -- Singapore Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong was taken ill while speaking at the country's National Day Rally this evening, according to the Singapore Prime Minister's Office (PMO).

"A medical team is attending to him right now. It has assessed that his condition is not serious. PMO will update in due course," said a statement from the office.

Lee, 64, was scheduled to end his English speech at 10pm.....
