KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 22 (Bernama) -- Recognising the importance of conservation of the endangered Sumatran Rhinoceros, Malaysia is currently making a formal request to Indonesia to consider the proposal to implement the Rhinoceros Conservation Partnership Programme between Malaysia and Indonesia.

Natural Resources and Environment Minister Datuk Seri Dr Wan Junaidi Tuanku Jaafar said Malaysia presented the proposal at the 10th Heart of Borneo (HoB) Trilateral Meeting held in Brunei from Sept 5 to 7.

In addition, efforts are underway to arrange further discussion regarding the implementation of this initiative among scientists and experts in the field from both countries as early preparation for implementing it.....
