KUALA LUMPUR, Oct 24 (Bernama) -- The government is to continue to encourage and support national motoring sports to maintain the people's interest in the activity, said Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

The Prime Minister said motoring sports was very much liked by Malaysians.

"I find that the Motorcycle Grand Prix (MotoGP) draws great interest. I understand that 90,000 people are expected to watch the Malaysian MotoGP 2016.

"The more important thing is for us to introduce our champions at the international level," he told reporters after three Malaysian MotoGP racers paid a courtesy call on him at his office at Parliament House here today.

They were Moto2 racer Hafizh Syahrin Abdullah dalam and Moto3 racers Khairul Idham Pawi and Adam Norrodin, all of whom will ride in the championships at the Sepang International Circuit from Friday to Sunday.
