PUTRAJAYA, Oct 24 (Bernama) -- In conjunction with the United Nations Day celebrations today, Malaysia is firmly committed to the United Nations as promoting cooperation in the maintenance of international peace and security, development and human rights.

The Foreign Ministry, in a statement issued Monday in conjunction with the celebrations, said Malaysia continued to support and commit to efforts by the Security Council and the UN as a whole, in countering terrorism which currently posed a grave threat to international peace and security.

Malaysia was also committed to implementing the 17 sustainable development goals (SDGs) contained in the 2030 Agenda on Sustainable Development, which the UN member state leaders, including Malaysia, had adopted in September last year, it said....
