BANGKOK, Aug 30 (Bernama) -- The Royal Thai Police and Immigration bureau has been instructed to begin the process of extraditing 10 suspected masterminds of human trafficking syndicates to Malaysia.

Thai Deputy Prime Minister Gen Prawit Wongsuwan said the country will extradite the suspects to Malaysia if there are no legal obstructions to do so.

"If we are able to extradite, then we will," he said when asked about his Malaysian counterpart Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi's statement on Thailand's agreement to extradite the 10 suspects....
