KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 5 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today reminded Malaysians to discharge their responsibility to look after, value and be grateful to be blessed with a good environment.

Najib who shared the sermon for today's Friday prayers, said he hoped the rakyat (people) would continue to be blessed with a good environment from Allah if they did their part in protecting and valuing the environment.

"I wish to share the message by the khatib in the sermon today to look after, value and be grateful for the environment Allah has blessed us.

"Hopefully, we will continue to be blessed by The Almighty," Najib said in his latest posting on his Facebook.
