KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 5 (Bernama) -- Ukraine's First Lady, Maryna Poroshenko had a tour at the Kuala Lumpur (KL) Butterfly Park at Taman Tasik Perdana, here today, on the last day of her visit in Malaysia.

Maryna and her delegation were greeted by chief executive officer of KL Butterfly Park, Datuk Charles Wong Chin Tuck upon her arrival at about 9.45 am.

She spent about 30 minutes enjoying the beautiful features and greenery of the 80,000-sq ft landscaped garden which had more than 5,000 butterflies from 60 spesies, exotic plants and ferns.

During the tour Maryna was guided by an experienced KL Butterfly Park supervisor, Roslyn Gina Sandanam.

The wife of President Petro Poroshenko also took the opportunity to take pictures during the visit.

Maryna was in the federal capital to accompany her husband for a three-day working visit since Wednesday.

This is the first visit by a Ukrainian President to Malaysia and it marks the elevation of ties between both countries.
