KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 5 (Bernama) -- While Americans remain undecided over their next president, Malaysians who have been following the upcoming US presidential election are mostly out for Hillary Clinton.

A survey among Malaysians conducted by KAJIDATA Research found 86.8 per cent of the respondents viewing Democrats' Clinton as the better choice for America compared with the Republicans' Donald Trump.

The survey also found that 59 per cent of the respondents have been following the US presidential election with only a small group following closely while the rest, just in passing.....
