BANGKOK, Aug 6 (Bernama) -- Relations and cooperation between Malaysia and Thailand's security authorities have been further enhanced with Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi's two-day working visit to the Land of the White Elephant, which ended yesterday.

The visit by Ahmad Zahid, who is also Home Minister, succeeded in further enhancing cooperation among the neighbours in addressing their internal security problems.

"What is important for Malaysia and Thailand is cooperation and as the closest neighbour, we are taking several proactive measures to ensure peace and security in both countries, and border problems to be resolved promptly.....
