KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 8 (Bernama) -- The success of Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM) to finish third at the Foreign Direct Investment International Arbitration Moot (FDI Moot) competition captured the attention of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

He said the success of finishing in the top three had also placed UiTM at par with world's top universities.

"Congratulations @MootUiTM for keeping Malaysian flag flying high and placing UiTM at par with world's renowned institutions such as Harvard and Paris Law School," he tweeted tonight.

Four UiTM law students - Amiza Murad, 20; Fathan Alfian, 22; Iffah Yahya, 22; and Izzudin Zahidi, 22; represented the Asia Pacific region at the competition in Buenos Aires, Argentina, which began on Nov 3.

Paris Law School won first place, while Harvard University took the second.
