KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 9 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said international singer Maher Zain's songs contained good 'dakwah' (missionary) messages for the younger generation in the country.

Najib, who held a meeting with the singer from Lebanon here today, said that songs such as 'Thank You Allah', 'Insha Allah' and 'Palestine Will Be Free' are more than just a form of entertainment.

"Maher Zain shared with me his new album just now, I was happy to see that the songs in it still carry "dakwah" messages which call on Muslims to strive towards betterment.

"May we all be blessed with the grace of Allah, Isya Allah," he said in his Twitter and Facebook posts today.

He also uploaded a 'selfie' with the 35-year-old singer.

Maher Zain was nominated at the 18th Anugerah Industri Muzik (AIM) in the 'Best Malay Song Presented by a Foreign Artiste' category for his song "Insha Allah", in 2011.
