ALOR SETAR, Dec 1 (Bernama) -- About 300 ethnic Rohingya refugees, reported stranded between the waters of Myanmar and Bangladesh since Nov 17, were found safe by Bangladeshi villagers two days ago.

Malaysia Rohinyas Association, Kedah branch chairman, Yusof Ali said they were among 500 Rohingyas who fled Myanmar in several boats after their villages in the Rakhine region were burned down while several residents were killed.

However, he said, based on information received from his countrymen, the fate of the other 200 who also fled in boats, was not known and that they could have drowned or shot by Myanmar government soldiers.....
