KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 1 (Bernama) -- A witness told the High Court here today that two pairs of gloves with Datuk Anthony Kevin Morais' bloodstains were found hidden in a four-wheel-drive vehicle used to ram into the car driven by the murdered deputy public prosecutor.

Sergeant Azmi Shaari from the Kedah police headquarters said the two black rubber gloves were found under the driver's seat of the Mitsubishi Triton 4WD.

"The gloves were placed under the driver's cushion and were not visible from the front, but the plastic bag (containing the gloves) could be seen from behind," he said when questioned by deputy public prosecutor Wan Shahrudin Wan Ladin during the examination-in-chief in the murder trial of Kevin Morais which entered its 33rd day today....
