PUTRAJAYA, Dec 16 (Bernama) -- The year 2016 saw Malaysia taking a bold step in fighting for the marginalised Rohingya community in Rakhine, ignoring calls from Myanmar not to get involved in their 'internal affairs'.

On Dec 4, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and his deputy, Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi, as well as PAS President Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang, non-governmental organisations (NGO) and community and national political figures gathered at the Ummah Solidarity Gathering at the Titiwangsa Stadium in a show of solidarity against the atrocities committed against the Rohingyas.

Najib also vowed to fight against selective treatment, abuse and killings of the predominantly Muslim Rohingya community.....
