KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 17 (Bernama) -- Malaysia hopes to see the high-level European Union (EU)-facilitated dialogue between Pristina and Belgrade resume, as soon as possible.

Malaysia's Deputy Permanent Representative to the United Nations (UN), Siti Hajjar Adnin said the normalisation of relations between the capital cities of Kosovo and Serbia remained a crucial aspect in paving the way towards European integration, in the interest of peace and stability in Kosovo and the region.

"With respect to outstanding commitment as agreed in the 15-point Brussels Agreement, Malaysia urges Pristina and Belgrade to redouble efforts in implementing the historic agreement....
