LAHAD DATU, Dec 18 (Bernama) -- Since news spread that Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak will be here tomorrow to open the Pan Borneo Expressway, residents have been excited and waiting eagerly for the arrival of the country's number one leader.

A resident of Kampung Batu 13, Arita Abbas, 34, said the prime minister's arrival tomorrow would give hope for more development in Lahad Datu and bring the district on par with other districts in the state.

"We welcome him and hope that with this visit, he will be more concern with our well-being and will address any issues and shortage facing the residents here," he told Bernama here today.....
