PUTRAJAYA, Dec 19 (Bernama) -- Malaysia has proposed key recommendations to address the plight of the ethnic Rohingya, including the need for ASEAN to establish an independent group of experts or eminent persons group to investigate and verify the situation in the Rakhine state.

Foreign Minister Datuk Seri Anifah Aman, in outlining recommendations for the Myanmar Government's consideration at the ASEAN Foreign Ministers' Retreat in Yangon, Monday also proposed that ASEAN coordinate the humanitarian assistance to the Rakhine state, as what had been done during Cyclone Nargis in 2008.

"I believe the most urgent matter is the humanitarian condition of the people in affected areas...."
