KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 2 (Bernama) -- The National Library of Malaysia (PNM) has forged a collaboration with Majlis Amanah Rakyat (MARA) to further enhance the quality of delivery of information resources in support of the Government Transformation Programme.

The collaboration was achieved through a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signed by the director-general of the National Library Nafisah Ahmad and MARA director-general Datuk Ibrahim Ahmad Thursday.

Nafisa in her speech at the signing ceremony, said the two-year collaboration, effective today until December 2018, would include preparation of access to physical and electronic information resources, as well as advisory and consultancy services in the fields of library and librarianship.....
