KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 25 (Bernama) -- Following are excerpts of an interview with Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi, who is an UMNO vice-president discharging the duties of the deputy president, in conjunction with the 2016 UMNO General Assembly scheduled for Nov 29 to Dec 3 here.

Besides talking at length on the importance of solidarity and togetherness of UMNO members and the party leadership, Ahmad Zahid also touched on topics such as UMNO's preparations for the 14th General Election, the importance of UMNO to all Malaysians and the 2050 National Transformation (TN50).

QUESTION: At the upcoming 2016 UMNO General Assembly, Datuk Seri is tasked with the duties of Deputy President and given the mandate to open the assemblies of the three party wings. How do you feel about this?

AHMAD ZAHID: My official task, God willing, I will realise on Nov 29. The UMNO Supreme Council has given me the mandate to open the general assemblies of the three party wings that night. I have not worn the UMNO Youth attire for the past 21 years. God willing, I will don the UMNO Youth Malay attire then to give me that personal feeling of nostalgia.....
