If common logo is not approved in time for GE14, the parties will fall back on their own logos to contest seats.

PETALING JAYA: Pakatan Harapan parties are to register the coalition with the Registrar of Societies (ROS) in two weeks' time.

This was decided by the PH presidential council, opposition leader Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail said today, Malaysiakini reported.

All four parties – DAP, PKR, Amanah and Parti Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia (PPBM) – will be represented together with a new logo to be used in the 14th general election (GE14).

Speaking after the PH presidential council meeting at the PPBM headquarters here today, Wan Azizah said the application will be thoroughly vetted so that there are no legal problems.

“You know how the ROS is. When we wanted to register Adil back then, until today it has not been approved,” she said.

Adil was the original party Wan Azizah had wanted to register before PKR.

In case ROS denies PH's registration, Wan Azizah said the various parties will use their own logos for GE14.
