Saudi Arabia Deputy Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman and Saudi cabinet members were also present.

RIYADH: Prime Minister Najib Razak and his wife Rosmah Mansor held an audience with Saudi Arabia's King Salman Abdulaziz Al Saud at King Salman Palace here on Monday.

They met the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques at 2.30pm (7.30pm Malaysia time).

Najib held a discussion with the monarch before the latter hosted lunch for the prime minister and his delegation.

The delegation included Defence Minister Hishammuddin Hussein, who is also minister with special functions, Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Jamil Khir Baharom and Malaysian ambassador to Saudi Arabia Zainol Rahim Zainuddin.

Saudi Arabia Deputy Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman and Saudi Arabian cabinet members were present.

Najib is on the final leg of a three-day working visit to Saudi Arabia.

King Salman, Najib, US President Donald Trump and more than 50 Arab and Muslim leaders attended the Arab-Islamic-US Summit at King Abdulaziz International Convention Centre here yesterday.

The king was in Malaysia late February for a four-day state visit.
