

Ex-Selangor Exco Dies Of Cancer

Picture from Subang Umno Division website SHAH ALAM, Feb 21 (Bernama) -- Former Selangor state exco, Datuk Mohd Mokhtar Ahmad Dahalan, 73, passed away at a private hospital near here at 3.34am Tuesday, due to pancreatic cancer.

Subang UMNO division chief Datuk Zein Isma Ismail said the deceased would be brought to his residence at Section 9 here, for burial at the Muslim cemetery at Section 21 at 11am.

Mokhtar was a Kota Damansara assemblyman and Subang UMNO division chief and had also served as Housing, Building Management and Squatters state executive councillor for two terms from 1999 till 2008.

Mokhtar was buried at the Muslim cemetery in Section 21.

He leaves behind wife Datin Rahimah Naim, 68, and five children, aged between 27 and 43.

Subang Umno Division chief Datuk Zein Isma Ismail said Mokhtar's passing was a great loss to the division as well as the community in Subang.
