In his speech, Salleh said the appreciation was not for him alone.

He said all the officers have worked tirelessly and relentlessly in ensuring the smooth running of each event from start to finish.

"Congratulations. I admit there are some issues in the implementation of the Departure Ceremony for the 14th Yang Di-Pertuan Agong.

"However, starting from this issue, we have together endeavoured to improve it and it was evident when the Prime Minister expressed satisfaction over the implementation of events in conjunction with the installation," he said.
