

Najib Condemns Attack In Marawi City

KUALA LUMPUR, 25 May (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has condemned the attack against Marawi City by groups linked to terror movement Daesh that led to casualties among Philippine government forces and displacement of civilians.

Najib said Malaysia had full confidence in the Philippines' handling of the crisis and will offer its full support.

"The crisis shall not derail the ongoing Mindanao peace process," he said on Twitter and Facebook today.

Martial law has been declared in Mindanao following heavy clashes between Filipino government troops and militants in Mindanao's Marawi city.
