

Selangor Sultan Graces Opening Of Kampung Sementa Mosque

KLANG, May 30 (Bernama) -- The Sultan of Selangor, Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah today graced the opening of the new mosque in Kampung Sementa, Kapar, here.

He also attended the breaking of fast event with the local residents before joining them for Maghrib, Isyak and Tarawih prayers.

Also present were Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Mohamed Azmin Ali and State Islamic Religious Department director Datuk Haris Kasim.

The mosque, which was completed in November 2015, has a prayer area that could accommodate 2,000 people at a time.

At the event, the Sultan also presented financial aid of RM500 each to 360 recipients comprising the poor and Muslim reverts to enable them to make preparations for the upcoming Aidilfitri.

Meanwhile, the Selangor government also presented special allocation of RM10,000 to Kampung Sementa Mosque; RM20,000 to Surau Al Ikwan in Taman Setia; and RM50,000 to Surau Azizah in Batu 7, Jalan Kebun.
