PKR communications director Fahmi Fadzil mocks Deputy Prime Minister Ahmad Zahid Hamidi's 'sinking ship' comment, says PH will return 'stolen treasures' to people.

PETALING JAYA: PKR communications director Fahmi Fadzil says Pakatan Harapan is only interested in going after the ruling coalition's "treasure-filled pirate ship" if it takes over Putrajaya.

He was responding to Deputy Prime Minister Ahmad Zahid Hamidi's "sinking ship with three captains" comment on Pakatan Harapan's new leadership council, Asian Correspondent reported.

"When the pirate ship of Umno-BN is defeated, we will surely be able to trace the 'treasure map' of the pirate ship's skipper to return to the people the riches that were robbed and stolen by its cohorts," Fahmi was quoted as saying.

He added that the current administration of Prime Minister Najib Razak is in panic mode, as the opposition coalition is now "more than ready" to begin its hunt for the ruling government's "piracy vessel".

On Saturday, Zahid said PH's decision to name three individuals as their top leaders is akin to a ship doomed to sink as it had three captains with different maps.

He had said by now people must be wondering who would be holding the executive power in PH and how the coalition could possibly function when each of its top leaders had an own path to follow.

"Logically, a ship which has three captains will be in trouble because one captain would want to sail to the right, while the other to the left. The ship is doomed to sink," he was quoted as saying by Bernama.

On Thursday night, PH, which comprises PKR, DAP, Amanah and PPBM, announced its new leadership structure with PKR's Anwar Ibrahim as its de facto leader, PPBM's Dr Mahathir Mohamad as the chairman and PKR's Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail as the president. All carry the same titles in the respective parties.

PPBM president Muhyiddin Yassin, Amanah president Mohamad Sabu and DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng were named joint-deputy presidents.

PKR deputy president Azmin Ali and his PPBM counterpart Mukhriz Mahathir were named as vice-presidents, along with DAP's Chong Chieng Jen and Amanah's Salahuddin Ayub, while former deputy minister Saifuddin Abdullah is the chief secretary.
