SHAH ALAM, Aug 13 (Bernama) --The 'Nothing To Hide 2.0' programme, organised by Parti Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia's (PPBM) youth wing (Armada), at Dewan Raja Musa in Section 7 here turned into a ruckus with the throwing of flares, chairs, shoes and water bottles by several audience.

The pandemonium broke out at 5.10 pm after a male audience asked the party's chairman, Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad over the Memali incident which occurred in Baling, Kedah, in September 1985.

When asked why the incident was declared as emergency and those involved were killed, Dr Mahathir explained that it was standard operating procedures for the police after four of its personnel perished in the incident.

However, as he was explaining, several individuals began throwing shoes, chairs and water bottles before the troublemakers ignited flares and thrown at the former prime minister who was standing in the middle of the stage.

The objects almost hit Dr Mahathir as well as several journalists and photographers who were in the vicinity...
