Last update: 10/06/2017

KUALA LUMPUR, June 10 (Bernama) - After a series of dialogues to gather feedback on National Transformation 2050 (TN50) , Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today invited Malaysians to share their religious and spiritual aspirations.

The prime minister said he had the opportunity to meet and hold dialogues with civil servants from various ministries, the students, the youths and the artistes for the same purpose.

"In this holy month of Ramadan, let us share our aspirations from the religious and spiritual aspects as it is important in the formation of character and the development of a national identity.

"Submit your proposal or aspiration through Facebook and Twitter, or write an email to najib@najibrazak.com with the title #TN50," he said in a post on Facebook today.

TN50 is an initiative to shape the future of Malaysia from 2020 to 2050.

When tabling Budget 2017 in parliament in October 2016, Najib said the government would hold a series of national dialogues towards making TN50 a reality.
