JASIN, Aug 19 (Bernama) -- UMNO must return to the formula of past struggles, which was based on patience and sincerity to ensure that the party remains relevant and strong, said UMNO Supreme Council member Datuk Seri Johari Abdul Ghani.

He said the leaders of today have a formidable task of not only continuing and appreciating the struggles of past leaders who were willing to sacrifice for the sake of the party, but also to ensure that UMNO remained in power and could be inherited by generations to come.

"At the same time, UMNO as the backbone of the Barisan Nasional, must ensure that the other component parties have the support of UMNO members," he told reporters after opening the Jasin UMNO Division Delegates Conference here today.

"With the support, only then will UMNO be able to attain actual strength and will not be threatened by other parties.

"However, if we change the formula by just focusing on UMNO's interests then the party's strength will be affected," he said.....
