KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 14 — Three teenagers have been remanded four days in an investigation for rioting and possession of weapons at the Nothing to Hide 2.0 forum yesterday.

News portal The Malaysian Insight reported that the male suspects aged 17, 18 and 19 were being probed under the Peaceful Assembly Act 2012.

Police reportedly applied to hold the suspects for a week, but Shah Alam magistrate Raja Noor Adilla Raja Mahyaldin gave a four-day remand instead.

The forum featuring Parti Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia (PPBM) chairman Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad in Shah Alam yesterday was disrupted by some who set off flares and threw shoes towards the stage, leading to a mass brawl.

PPBM Youth has denied that the suspects were party members.
