KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 3 (Bernama) -- The government has set up a special interactive website, <https://bajet2018.najibrazak.com>, to get inputs from the people in the preparation of the 2018 Budget.

In a statement today, Press Secretary to the Prime Minister, Datuk Seri Tengku Sariffuddin, said just like in the previous years, the feedback and suggestions from the people had always played an important role in the preparation of the national budget.

The website would be opened from Sept 4 to to Sept 18, 2017, he said.

"There are 14 categories in the website which are of relevance and importance to be presented by Prime Minister Datujk Seri Najib Tun Razak on Oct 27, 2017," he said.

He said among them were the digital economy, the cost of living, housing and urban life, healthcare services, transport and infrastructure, rural development, environment and agriculture, youth and sports, culture and tourism, public safety and transparency.

He said the people were encouraged to provide inputs in the preparation of Budget 2018.
