SEMPORNA, Oct 7 (Bernama) --- There is no enmity among members of the Semporna UMNO division, said its acting chief Datuk Seri Nasir Tun Sakaran.

He said the 'development' that appeared to be faced by the division was deliberately orchestrated by certain groups.

"Nothing is happening in Semporna UMNO, the minor tiff is like a family quarrel between siblings.

"Misunderstandings are normal and we try our level best to resolve whatever weaknesses and shortcomings," he said.

Nasir, who is also the Senallah State Assemblyman, said this when approached by reporters after performing a special prayer (solat hajat) for the Form Three Assessment, Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia and Sijil Tinggi Pelajaran Malaysia at he Sekolah Menengah Agama Tun Sakaran surau, here today.

He said the developments in UMNO currently were normal and the various matters raised in the social media were also normal.

"Our focus is to work to get closer to the people and continue the efforts to assist the people through the programmes provided by the government," he added.
