KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 8 (Bernama) -- The Yang di-Pertuan Agong Sultan Muhammad V has called on Malaysians to be mindful on the importance of preserving their solidarity and unity, as well as to be cautious of elements that could destroy the country.

The King said the unity among the people was the pillar and recipe for the success that the nation had achieved and the people needed to strive to maintain what they were enjoying today.

"I call on all the people to maintain the harmony and stability we are enjoying today, do not let it be destroyed by those who are always looking for opportunities to break our unity and harmony," said Sultan Muhammad V in a message in conjunction with his official birthday celebration tomorrow, which was telecast over major television stations tonight.

In the message, the King also urged the people to appreciate the country's National Day celebration on Aug 31 and Malaysia Day celebration on Sept 16, by remembering the sacrifices of the freedom fighters.

His Majesty also expressed his appreciation for Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak who always strived to ensure the country's economy kept improving for the well-being of the people.....
