KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 30 (Bernama) -- The Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) said it would screen only the candidates whose names are in the 14th general election (GE14) list submitted by the political parties, without involving their families.

"The question about screening the family members does not arise. It is just screening, not an investigation," assured MACC chief commissioner Tan Sri Dzulkifli Ahmad.

He said MACC would not expose the names of individuals listed for screening or any information received from the political parties.

"Any relevant development would be relayed to the political party concerned for further action," he said after closing the commission's Anti-Corruption Roadshow 2017 (KEJAR 17) here today.

Yesterday, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak who is also Barisan Nasional chairman said BN had sent part of the list of proposed candidates for the GE14 to the MACC for screening.....
