PUTRAJAYA, Oct 3 — Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak today asked civil servants to imagine their fate if the Pakatan Harapan (PH) pact were to win federal power at the next general elections.

In his annual address to civil servants here Najib listed the Opposition pact's past criticisms of the size of the civil service in Malaysia while also listing his administration's initiatives for the civil servants.

"Imagine, ladies and gentlemen, what will happen to the fate of a majority of civil servants, if they are allowed to rule the country?" he asked.

Najib said that Putrajaya was "angered" by the Opposition's criticism, especially those calling the civil service bloated.

"If they are in power, with arrogance, they intend to reduce the civil service size by half," he said.

"They have the audacity of calling civil servants incompetent, and kucing kurap," he said, referring to DAP's Jelutong MP Jeff Ooi 2013 comparing civil servants to mangy cats.

"Are you willing to gamble your future and future of the next generation to such parties?" he asked.
