IPOH, Jan 25 (Bernama) -- About 20 per cent of opposition youth candidates are expected to contest for parliamentary and state seats in Perak in the upcoming 14th general election said Perak Pakatan Harapan chairman, Ahmad Faizal Azumu.

However he said, it was up to the party leadership to decide on the candidates qualified to contest in the general election.

"We are giving priority to the young to be in the front line and looking at the situation we foresee that the younger candidates will be fielded," he told reporters after launching Pakatan Harapan Perak Youth wing here today.

He said the full list of Perak opposition potential candidates would be announced by the end of this month.
