LABUAN, Jan 25 (Bernama) -- As the 14th General Election (GE14) draws near, the Labuan member of parliament says opposition parties should not waste their resources in the duty-free-island here as its people rally behind the ruling Barisan Nasional (BN) government for their future.

Datuk Rozman Isli said the multi-racial community's unity and solidarity served as a barrier for the opposition to obtain the people's support.

"While it is the opposition's right to set up a division in Labuan, my advice to them is not to waste their resources here," he told a press conference here today.

He was commenting on the recently-launched Labuan PAS election manifesto and the Sabah-based Parti Warisan's plan to establish a division here soon.

Rozman, who is also Labuan Corporation chairman, said the recently-launched Labuan Development Blueprint 2030, the pillar of the island's economic growth would surely lead the people to continue supporting the ruling government.
