KOTA KINABALU, March 2 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said today he is confident the Barisan Nasional will retain Sabah in the 14th General Election but advised party members to work hard to ensure victory for the ruling coalition.

He said BN was now focusing on winning the hearts of the voters and that clear instruction had been given with regard to the task at hand.

"I am confident Sabah will be with BN, but we do not to be complacent or overconfident.

"We still need to work harder," he said to reporters after delivering a message at a meeting with federal and Sabah public servants here.

Najib said he hoped that the people's positive response to his visit to Sabah could be translated into the people's support for BN as the government in GE14.
