KUALA LUMPUR, May 8 (Bernama) -- The problems the people face today cannot be solved merely by toppling someone or electing someone, said PAS president Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang.

Abdul Hadi, who is also chairman of the Gagasan Sejahtera coalition of parties, said a total solution was necessary to solve problems such as corruption, crime and social ailments which threaten the country as well as the rising cost-of-living.

"All these problems require a holistic solution and a reformation of the system, not just by toppling someone and electing someone," he said live in a special message on his Facebook account on the eve of polling in the 14th general election.
