SEREMBAN, May 8 (Bernama) -- In Negeri Sembilan, 313 polling centres and 1,124 voting channels would be opened tomorrow.

Negeri Sembilan EC director Afizam Abdullah Sani said 587,108 voters were eligible to cast their vote.

"Voters are advised to mark the ballot paper with the pen not with the permanent ink, and they are not allowed to campaign or solicit for votes at the polling centres. Keep your vote secret and abide by the election rules," he said.

Negeri Sembilan has eight parliamentary constituencies and 36 state constituencies.

In Perak, 778 polling centres and 2,815 voting channels would be opened for 1.47 million voters to cast their ballot.

Perak EC director Mohd Nazri Ismail said the state has 1.5 million registered voters, of which 1.47 million are normal voters, while 37,407, early voters.

He also issued a reminder to 28,464 postal voters to return their ballot papers before 5pm tomorrow.
