SANDAKAN, May 8 (Bernama) -- Sabah caretaker chief minister Tan Sri Musa Aman has urged the people in the state to exercise their responsibility and vote wisely in the 14th general election.

"Tomorrow is very important for Malaysians to choose a government for their future and that of the next generation.

"So let us all exercise our responsibility and right to vote in a democratic country," he told a media conference here.

Meanwhile, Sabah police commissioner Datuk Ramli Din in a separate media conference said 7,212 police personnel would be involved in safeguarding the state in GE14.

He said Sabah Police were 100 per cent prepared for the task.
