KUALA LUMPUR, May 11 (Bernama) -- Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad shared his first tweet as the Prime Minister of Malaysia, showing him at a meeting of Pakatan Harapan (PH) leaders.

The meeting was attended by PKR president Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail, DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng, Amanah president Mohamad Sabu and PH secretary-general Datuk Saifuddin Abdullah.

In his tweet, captioned "First day on the job - once again", he also included his handwritten notes on what would be discussed during the meeting at Yayasan Albukhary here today.

Included were two other photographs of his press conference which was held at the building before he left for Friday prayers at the nearby National Mosque.

Dr Mahathir, 92, was sworn in as Malaysia's seventh prime minister at Istana Negara last night. He is the oldest elected prime minister in the world.

PH, led by Mahathir, formed the federal government after winning the 14th general election on May 9.
