KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 12 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak expressed sadness and conveyed his condolences to the family of Paya Besar Member of Parliament Datuk Seri Abdul Manan Ismail who died today.

Innalillah. Saddened by the news that the Paya Besar MP and my former private secretary Datuk Seri Abdul Manan Ismail had passed away.

"Condolences to the family, may his soul be blessed. Al-Fatihah, he tweeted tonight.

Najib added that Abdul Manan's death was a big loss to UMNO as he was a dedicated MP and had always striven to give his level best in serving the people.

"We were so close before and had also worked together at the Youth and Sports Ministry," he tweeted.

Abdul Manan, 70, died at about 6.45 pm after falling in the bathroom at his house in Taman Melawati here.

He was also the Malaysian Intellectual Property Corporation chairman and had served as Najib's private secretary from 1986 to 2004.
