KUALA LUMPUR, April 22 (Bernama) -- The DAP is showing its true colours by announcing two of its members as candidates for Cabinet minister posts, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

On this Twitter account today, Najib questioned the announcements by DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng as the Penang Chief Minister was not the candidate for prime minister chosen by Pakatan Harapan (PH).

The party has chosen Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad as its candidate for prime minister.

The power to determine the candidates for Cabinet ministers, he said, lay with the prime minister.

"It is clear which party is really holding the power in Pakatan Harapan, the rest are just followers," he said.

Recently, Lim announced that Perak DAP chairman Nga Kor Ming and Johor DAP chairman Liew Chin Tong were candidates for Cabinet minister posts if they won the Teluk Intan (in Perak) and the Ayer Hitam parliamentary seats (in Johor).
