SABAK BERNAM, Feb 22 (Bernama) -- A 29-year-old architect is among the potential candidates identified by the MCA to contest the Sekinchan State Assembly seat in the upcoming 14th general election (GE14), says party President Datuk Seri Liow Tiong Lai.

He said Lee Yee Yuan, who is Sungai Besar MCA Division committee member, was selected as potential candidate because he was a person of high calibre who could bring significant changes to the area.

"However, we have to wait for 'blessing' from Barisan Nasional (BN) Chairman Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak," he told reporters after launching the Sungai Besar Kini (Chinese version) newspaper here today.

In GE13, the seat was won by DAP's Ng Suee Lim who defeated Kek Seng Hooi from BN by a majority of 2,239 votes.
