SEREMBAN, Feb 25 (Bernama) -- Negeri Sembilan PAS will contest in all the state and parliamentary seats in the coming 14th General Election.

State PAS commissioner Mustaffa Daharun said to the party had identified the potential candidates for the 27 state seats and eight parliamentary seats in Negeri Sembilan.

"We will also field at least 11 non-Muslim candidates to contest on PAS ticket in non-Malay majority areas such as Temiang and Lobak," he told reporters after the launch of the party's election machinery here last night.

Meanwhile, PAS central election director Dr Ahmad Samsuri Mokhtar said the party would launch its manifesto on March 11.
