PETALING JAYA, Sept 3 (Bernama) -- Internal conflicts among top party leaders in PKR ahead of the party's polls has not affected Pakatan Harapan's campaigning in the Seri Setia by-election, said Halimey Abu Bakar, the candidate for PH.

He said the election machinery was united and in full swing.

"The campaign machinery is unaffected by the internal squabbles in PKR," he said at his daily press conference here today.

He is in a straight fight with Dr Halimah Ali of PAS. Polling is this Saturday.

There has been open warfare between incumbent PKR deputy president Datuk Seri Mohamed Azmin Ali, who is also Economic Affairs Minister, and vice president Rafizi Ramli who is challenging the former for the Number Two post.

Datukl Seri Anwar Ibrahim had won the president's post uncontested when nominations closed on Aug 5. PKR polls will be held from Sept 14 to Oct 13.

Meanwhile, in SHAH ALAM, PH deputy president Mohamad Sabu reminded PH components not to quarrel among themselves .

Mohamad, who is also Defence Minister and Amanah president, said they may have differences but the coalition's struggle was paramount and thus it would not be wise to weaken it.

"PAS also knows PH is very strong, that is why they are now teaming up with UMNO," he said at PH cermah here tonight.

PH is made up of Bersatu, DAP, PKR and Amanah.
