PUTRAJAYA, Aug 15 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad said today there would be no compromise in the case of government leaders and officers found to be involved in corruption.

“No pity, no consideration and no cover-up,” he said when addressing Cabinet ministers and about 3,500 administrative and diplomatic officers (PTD) at a town hall session here.

He said government leaders, including the Prime Minister, must set a good example in combating corruption and in declaring their assets.
